1. The "Casa de Marruecos" established in Cairo by the Spanish Government for the benefit of Moroccan students has been closed by the Spanish Legation. Thirty students were originally maintained in the school. Of this group eight returned to Morocco upon completion of their studies. Some fifteen have refused to return to Morocco, however, they reportedly will be forced to do so because of economic difficulties. Six students are now working in Abd-el-Krim's office in Cairo.
2. Other groups of students from Spanish Morocco were to have been sent to the school by Spanish authorities, and of those who did attend the majority have not been reimbursed by the Spanish as they agreed to do.
